

City of Warren Mayoral Proclamation Honoring Armenian Genocide Remembrance Day

- Whereas,* the Warren community joins human rights advocates and historians from around the world to recognize and mourn the 1.5 million Armenians who perished in the Armenian Genocide as ordered by the government of the Ottoman Empire, which began on April 24, 1915 with the arrest, exile and murder of hundreds of Armenian intellectuals, political, religious, and business leaders; and
- Whereas,* during the 1915-1923 Genocide, Armenian survivors were forced to witness the slaughter of their relatives and the loss of their ancestral land and property in what is now known as the "First Genocide of the 20th Century;" and
- Whereas,* the State of Michigan declared in Act 558 of 2002 that "April 24 of each year shall be the Michigan day of remembrance of the Armenian genocide of 1915-1923 . . . in memory of the victims of the genocide and in honor of the survivors;" and
- Whereas,* the failure to learn from the past allows history to repeat itself as the world saw during the 2020 Nagorno-Karabagh war when the military forces of Azerbaijan and Turkey attacked the Armenian civilian population of Nagorno-Karabagh and its churches and civic buildings, resulting in casualties and loss of ancestral land and property, motivated by the same genocidal campaign that their ancestors suffered 108 years earlier, and
- Whereas,* Azerbaijan's ethnic cleansing campaign continues to this day against the 120,000 Armenians of Nagorno-Karabagh through its targeted denial of their freedom of movement and fundamental rights to life and liberty, despite strong statements of protest and condemnation by the United States, the European Union, and human rights organizations; and,
- Whereas,* the City of Warren is honored to join the Armenian-American community in its commemoration of the 108th anniversary of the Armenian Genocide in an effort to educate others about the tragic loss of life, land, and human rights of the Armenian people and the crimes of genocide committed against them, as well as Greeks and Assyrians, due to religious and political beliefs.

Now, therefore, be it resolved that I, James R. Fouts, Mayor of the City of Warren, Michigan, on behalf of the people of the City of Warren, do hereby dedicate and proclaim April 24, 2023 as Armenian Genocide Remembrance Day in memory of the victims of the Armenian Genocide and in honor of the survivors and their descendants, and urge all citizens of Warren to join in this solemn remembrance.

*Mayor James R. Fouts
City of Warren, Michigan*
